

*Affirmation of Faith

Rev. Melick

We believe the death and life cycles of creation are a gift to our survival. We believe there is a season for life and death, from spring to winter, or the rainy season to the dry season. We believe God breathes life into dust, transforming the decay of our universe into life itself. We grieve when death is wrought by sin and injustice. We lament when we lose the people and pets we love. We trust that in God's dream of a righteous, loving kin(g)dom, even death will be made right. We believe God's creative imagination is bound not by binaries or hierarchies or life and death, but only by love and justice. When our lives end, we believe our souls, formed by the very breath of God, live in glory with Jesus. We believe every life is worthy of dignity, even in death.

Prayers of the People and The Lord's Prayer

Rev. Melick

Response: Lord, in your mercy, All: Hear our prayer. Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Prayer of Confession and Passing of the Peace
Call to Confession

Susan Schaurer

Prayer of Confession

Liturgist: Siblings in Christ, let us confess our sins to God, laying down our burden of guilt into the grave of forgiven wrongs, where shame is conquered forever. Holy God, you created life from dirt, breathing air into our lungs, and entrusting us to live rightly. Today, as we remember our mortality with ashes and prayer, we confess our tendency to forget.

All: We have forgotten our Creator. We have forgotten that we came from dust and we shall return to dust.

Liturgist: Remind us of our fragile humanness, held delicately in the palm of your hand. Remind us to observe and appreciate creation—this incredible universe imagined for your glory and life's flourishing.

All: Forgive us for living as if we are invincible. Forgive us for living as if we are powerless.

Liturgist: For you are both the great God of all living things and the precious Spirit that inhabits each of us.

All: Have mercy upon us, your children. Amen.

Declaration of Forgiveness and Passing of the Peace

Liturgist: May the peace of Christ be with you.

All: And also with you.

*Our Response of Praise – #581 Gloria Patri

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Prelude

*Call to Worship

Susan Schaurer

Liturgist: Beloved of Christ, let us enter this holy space of worship and this holy time of Lent.

All: We come, turning and returning to God.

Liturgist: We gather knowing that God embraces our whole selves.

All: We come laughing or weeping, rejoicing or mourning, confident or doubting, carefree or burdened.

Liturgist: We begin in dust and in quiet, seeking courage to begin again.

All: We come, for God is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love.

Liturgist: We take on the disciplines of Lent as acts of faithful resistance.

All: We come to dream of a world renewed. We imagine a world at peace.

We lift our voices in praise.

*Opening Hymn #433 Sign Us With Ashes
